Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

Finally, if you disposed of your shares prior to January 1, 2015, you should utilize the Sales Schedule and applicable summary to determine your taxable gain or loss on share dispositions. Please contact your tax advisor if you have any questions regarding the applicable tax treatment of any item on the enclosed schedules. Questions relating specifically to the Schedule K-1 Information should be directed to: EFC Partner DataLink at (855) 237-3734

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

A. Forms 1099-DIV are used by corporations to report dividends paid to their shareholders. EFC is taxed as a partnership, not as a corporation. Schedules K-1 are used by partnerships to report taxable income, gain, deduction or loss to their partners. EFC shareholders are treated as partners for tax purposes, and receive Schedules K-1.

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

A. The cash distributions you receive decrease your basis in EFC. Your basis is increased by your share of EFC's taxable income or decreased by your share of EFC's taxable loss allocated to you on your Schedule K-1.

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

THE FOLLOWING NOTICE IS BASED ON U.S. TREASURY REGULATIONS GOVERNING PRACTICE BEFORE THE U.S. INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE:

EFC does not provide advice on tax matters to its shareholders. The information herein is intended as a general guide to reporting taxable income and gain and does not constitute tax advice. Shareholders are strongly urged to consult with their own tax advisors with regard to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of holding our shares and the related tax reporting requirements. This information is not intended to, and cannot, be used by any taxpayer to avoid penalties that may be imposed under U.S. federal income tax law.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

Shareholders are strongly urged to consult with their own tax advisors with regard to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of holding our shares and the related tax reporting requirements. This information is not intended to, and cannot, be used by any taxpayer to avoid penalties that may be imposed under U.S. federal income tax law.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

Please consult your tax advisor.

As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

THE FOLLOWING NOTICE IS BASED ON U.S. TREASURY REGULATIONS GOVERNING PRACTICE BEFORE THE U.S. INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE:

EFC does not provide advice on tax matters to its shareholders. The information herein is intended as a general guide to reporting taxable income and gain and does not constitute tax advice. Shareholders are strongly urged to consult with their own tax advisors with regard to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of holding our shares and the related tax reporting requirements. This information is not intended to, and cannot, be used by any taxpayer to avoid penalties that may be imposed under U.S. federal income tax law.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

THE FOLLOWING NOTICE IS BASED ON U.S. TREASURY REGULATIONS GOVERNING PRACTICE BEFORE THE U.S. INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE:

EFC does not provide advice on tax matters to its shareholders. The information herein is intended as a general guide to reporting taxable income and gain and does not constitute tax advice. Shareholders are strongly urged to consult with their own tax advisors with regard to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of holding our shares and the related tax reporting requirements. This information is not intended to, and cannot, be used by any taxpayer to avoid penalties that may be imposed under U.S. federal income tax law.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

THE FOLLOWING NOTICE IS BASED ON U.S. TREASURY REGULATIONS GOVERNING PRACTICE BEFORE THE U.S. INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE:

EFC does not provide advice on tax matters to its shareholders. The information herein is intended as a general guide to reporting taxable income and gain and does not constitute tax advice. Shareholders are strongly urged to consult with their own tax advisors with regard to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of holding our shares and the related tax reporting requirements. This information is not intended to, and cannot, be used by any taxpayer to avoid penalties that may be imposed under U.S. federal income tax law.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

CIRCULAR 230 DISCLOSURE

THE FOLLOWING NOTICE IS BASED ON U.S. TREASURY REGULATIONS GOVERNING PRACTICE BEFORE THE U.S. INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE:

EFC does not provide advice on tax matters to its shareholders. The information herein is intended as a general guide to reporting taxable income and gain and does not constitute tax advice. Shareholders are strongly urged to consult with their own tax advisors with regard to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of holding our shares and the related tax reporting requirements. This information is not intended to, and cannot, be used by any taxpayer to avoid penalties that may be imposed under U.S. federal income tax law.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

Please consult your tax advisor.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

Please consult your tax advisor.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

THE FOLLOWING NOTICE IS BASED ON U.S. TREASURY REGULATIONS GOVERNING PRACTICE BEFORE THE U.S. INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE:

EFC does not provide advice on tax matters to its shareholders. The information herein is intended as a general guide to reporting taxable income and gain and does not constitute tax advice. Shareholders are strongly urged to consult with their own tax advisors with regard to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of holding our shares and the related tax reporting requirements. This information is not intended to, and cannot, be used by any taxpayer to avoid penalties that may be imposed under U.S. federal income tax law.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

THE FOLLOWING NOTICE IS BASED ON U.S. TREASURY REGULATIONS GOVERNING PRACTICE BEFORE THE U.S. INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE:

EFC does not provide advice on tax matters to its shareholders. The information herein is intended as a general guide to reporting taxable income and gain and does not constitute tax advice. Shareholders are strongly urged to consult with their own tax advisors with regard to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of holding our shares and the related tax reporting requirements. This information is not intended to, and cannot, be used by any taxpayer to avoid penalties that may be imposed under U.S. federal income tax law.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

THE FOLLOWING NOTICE IS BASED ON U.S. TREASURY REGULATIONS GOVERNING PRACTICE BEFORE THE U.S. INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE:

EFC does not provide advice on tax matters to its shareholders. The information herein is intended as a general guide to reporting taxable income and gain and does not constitute tax advice. Shareholders are strongly urged to consult with their own tax advisors with regard to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of holding our shares and the related tax reporting requirements. This information is not intended to, and cannot, be used by any taxpayer to avoid penalties that may be imposed under U.S. federal income tax law.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

THE FOLLOWING NOTICE IS BASED ON U.S. TREASURY REGULATIONS GOVERNING PRACTICE BEFORE THE U.S. INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE:

EFC does not provide advice on tax matters to its shareholders. The information herein is intended as a general guide to reporting taxable income and gain and does not constitute tax advice. Shareholders are strongly urged to consult with their own tax advisors with regard to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of holding our shares and the related tax reporting requirements. This information is not intended to, and cannot, be used by any taxpayer to avoid penalties that may be imposed under U.S. federal income tax law.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

Please consult your tax advisor.

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

THE FOLLOWING NOTICE IS BASED ON U.S. TREASURY REGULATIONS GOVERNING PRACTICE BEFORE THE U.S. INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE:

EFC does not provide advice on tax matters to its shareholders. The information herein is intended as a general guide to reporting taxable income and gain and does not constitute tax advice. Shareholders are strongly urged to consult with their own tax advisors with regard to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of holding our shares and the related tax reporting requirements. This information is not intended to, and cannot, be used by any taxpayer to avoid penalties that may be imposed under U.S. federal income tax law.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

CIRCULAR 230 DISCLOSURE

THE FOLLOWING NOTICE IS BASED ON U.S. TREASURY REGULATIONS GOVERNING PRACTICE BEFORE THE U.S. INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE:

EFC does not provide advice on tax matters to its shareholders. The information herein is intended as a general guide to reporting taxable income and gain and does not constitute tax advice. Shareholders are strongly urged to consult with their own tax advisors with regard to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of holding our shares and the related tax reporting requirements. This information is not intended to, and cannot, be used by any taxpayer to avoid penalties that may be imposed under U.S. federal income tax law.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

THE FOLLOWING NOTICE IS BASED ON U.S. TREASURY REGULATIONS GOVERNING PRACTICE BEFORE THE U.S. INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE:

EFC does not provide advice on tax matters to its shareholders. The information herein is intended as a general guide to reporting taxable income and gain and does not constitute tax advice. Shareholders are strongly urged to consult with their own tax advisors with regard to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of holding our shares and the related tax reporting requirements. This information is not intended to, and cannot, be used by any taxpayer to avoid penalties that may be imposed under U.S. federal income tax law.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

CIRCULAR 230 DISCLOSURE

THE FOLLOWING NOTICE IS BASED ON U.S. TREASURY REGULATIONS GOVERNING PRACTICE BEFORE THE U.S. INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE:

EFC does not provide advice on tax matters to its shareholders. The information herein is intended as a general guide to reporting taxable income and gain and does not constitute tax advice. Shareholders are strongly urged to consult with their own tax advisors with regard to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of holding our shares and the related tax reporting requirements. This information is not intended to, and cannot, be used by any taxpayer to avoid penalties that may be imposed under U.S. federal income tax law.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

Please consult your tax advisor.

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

THE FOLLOWING NOTICE IS BASED ON U.S. TREASURY REGULATIONS GOVERNING PRACTICE BEFORE THE U.S. INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE:

EFC does not provide advice on tax matters to its shareholders. The information herein is intended as a general guide to reporting taxable income and gain and does not constitute tax advice. Shareholders are strongly urged to consult with their own tax advisors with regard to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of holding our shares and the related tax reporting requirements. This information is not intended to, and cannot, be used by any taxpayer to avoid penalties that may be imposed under U.S. federal income tax law.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

CIRCULAR 230 DISCLOSURE

THE FOLLOWING NOTICE IS BASED ON U.S. TREASURY REGULATIONS GOVERNING PRACTICE BEFORE THE U.S. INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE:

EFC does not provide advice on tax matters to its shareholders. The information herein is intended as a general guide to reporting taxable income and gain and does not constitute tax advice. Shareholders are strongly urged to consult with their own tax advisors with regard to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of holding our shares and the related tax reporting requirements. This information is not intended to, and cannot, be used by any taxpayer to avoid penalties that may be imposed under U.S. federal income tax law.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

Ellington Financial LLC

CIRCULAR 230 DISCLOSURE

THE FOLLOWING NOTICE IS BASED ON U.S. TREASURY REGULATIONS GOVERNING PRACTICE BEFORE THE U.S. INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE:

EFC does not provide advice on tax matters to its shareholders. The information herein is intended as a general guide to reporting taxable income and gain and does not constitute tax advice. Shareholders are strongly urged to consult with their own tax advisors with regard to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of holding our shares and the related tax reporting requirements. This information is not intended to, and cannot, be used by any taxpayer to avoid penalties that may be imposed under U.S. federal income tax law.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

Please consult your tax advisor.

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

CIRCULAR 230 DISCLOSURE

THE FOLLOWING NOTICE IS BASED ON U.S. TREASURY REGULATIONS GOVERNING PRACTICE BEFORE THE U.S. INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE:

EFC does not provide advice on tax matters to its shareholders. The information herein is intended as a general guide to reporting taxable income and gain and does not constitute tax advice. Shareholders are strongly urged to consult with their own tax advisors with regard to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of holding our shares and the related tax reporting requirements. This information is not intended to, and cannot, be used by any taxpayer to avoid penalties that may be imposed under U.S. federal income tax law.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

Finally, if you disposed of your shares prior to January 1, 2015, you should utilize the Sales Schedule and applicable summary to determine your taxable gain or loss on share dispositions. Please contact your tax advisor if you have any questions regarding the applicable tax treatment of any item on the enclosed schedules. Questions relating specifically to the Schedule K-1 Information should be directed to: EFC Partner DataLink at (855) 237-3734

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

Finally, if you disposed of your shares prior to January 1, 2015, you should utilize the Sales Schedule and applicable summary to determine your taxable gain or loss on share dispositions. Please contact your tax advisor if you have any questions regarding the applicable tax treatment of any item on the enclosed schedules. Questions relating specifically to the Schedule K-1 Information should be directed to: EFC Partner DataLink at (855) 237-3734

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

A. Forms 1099-DIV are used by corporations to report dividends paid to their shareholders. EFC is taxed as a partnership, not as a corporation. Schedules K-1 are used by partnerships to report taxable income, gain, deduction or loss to their partners. EFC shareholders are treated as partners for tax purposes, and receive Schedules K-1.

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

Finally, if you disposed of your shares prior to January 1, 2015, you should utilize the Sales Schedule and applicable summary to determine your taxable gain or loss on share dispositions. Please contact your tax advisor if you have any questions regarding the applicable tax treatment of any item on the enclosed schedules. Questions relating specifically to the Schedule K-1 Information should be directed to: EFC Partner DataLink at (855) 237-3734

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

A. Forms 1099-DIV are used by corporations to report dividends paid to their shareholders. EFC is taxed as a partnership, not as a corporation. Schedules K-1 are used by partnerships to report taxable income, gain, deduction or loss to their partners. EFC shareholders are treated as partners for tax purposes, and receive Schedules K-1.

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

Finally, if you disposed of your shares prior to January 1, 2015, you should utilize the Sales Schedule and applicable summary to determine your taxable gain or loss on share dispositions. Please contact your tax advisor if you have any questions regarding the applicable tax treatment of any item on the enclosed schedules. Questions relating specifically to the Schedule K-1 Information should be directed to: EFC Partner DataLink at (855) 237-3734

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

A. Forms 1099-DIV are used by corporations to report dividends paid to their shareholders. EFC is taxed as a partnership, not as a corporation. Schedules K-1 are used by partnerships to report taxable income, gain, deduction or loss to their partners. EFC shareholders are treated as partners for tax purposes, and receive Schedules K-1.

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

THE FOLLOWING NOTICE IS BASED ON U.S. TREASURY REGULATIONS GOVERNING PRACTICE BEFORE THE U.S. INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE:

EFC does not provide advice on tax matters to its shareholders. The information herein is intended as a general guide to reporting taxable income and gain and does not constitute tax advice. Shareholders are strongly urged to consult with their own tax advisors with regard to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of holding our shares and the related tax reporting requirements. This information is not intended to, and cannot, be used by any taxpayer to avoid penalties that may be imposed under U.S. federal income tax law.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

Finally, if you disposed of your shares prior to January 1, 2015, you should utilize the Sales Schedule and applicable summary to determine your taxable gain or loss on share dispositions. Please contact your tax advisor if you have any questions regarding the applicable tax treatment of any item on the enclosed schedules. Questions relating specifically to the Schedule K-1 Information should be directed to: EFC Partner DataLink at (855) 237-3734

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

THE FOLLOWING NOTICE IS BASED ON U.S. TREASURY REGULATIONS GOVERNING PRACTICE BEFORE THE U.S. INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE:

EFC does not provide advice on tax matters to its shareholders. The information herein is intended as a general guide to reporting taxable income and gain and does not constitute tax advice. Shareholders are strongly urged to consult with their own tax advisors with regard to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of holding our shares and the related tax reporting requirements. This information is not intended to, and cannot, be used by any taxpayer to avoid penalties that may be imposed under U.S. federal income tax law.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

Finally, if you disposed of your shares prior to January 1, 2015, you should utilize the Sales Schedule and applicable summary to determine your taxable gain or loss on share dispositions. Please contact your tax advisor if you have any questions regarding the applicable tax treatment of any item on the enclosed schedules. Questions relating specifically to the Schedule K-1 Information should be directed to: EFC Partner DataLink at (855) 237-3734

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

Finally, if you disposed of your shares prior to January 1, 2015, you should utilize the Sales Schedule and applicable summary to determine your taxable gain or loss on share dispositions. Please contact your tax advisor if you have any questions regarding the applicable tax treatment of any item on the enclosed schedules. Questions relating specifically to the Schedule K-1 Information should be directed to: EFC Partner DataLink at (855) 237-3734

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?

A. EFC is on a December 31 calendar year end for income tax purposes. Therefore, the enclosed tax information should be reported in your 2014 income tax return. If you are a fiscal year taxpayer, the tax information items should be reported in your tax return for your fiscal year which includes December 31, 2014.

Partner Footnotes:

Ellington Financial LLC ("EFC") has taken the tax return filing position that its direct activities generally constitute a trade or business for federal income tax purposes. As such, EFC's expenses, other than interest, have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 1 as an element of ordinary business income / (loss). EFC's share of expenses from an investment partnership have been reported on Line 13K. Furthermore, EFC is subject to a mark to market election as a trader in securities under IRC Section 475(f)(1). All gains and losses (which are ordinary gains) pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Capital gains and losses on securities not covered by the trader election have been included on Schedule K-1, Boxes 8 and 9A.

Please note that none of the distributive share items reported on this Schedule K-1 are considered as derived from a passive activity under Treasury Regulation Section 1.469-1T(e)(6). Accordingly, income allocated to you on this Schedule K-1 generally will not be able to offset passive losses you incur from other investments.

Investment income/expense items in Box 1, 8 and 11 have not been included in Boxes 20, Codes A or B. Please consult your tax advisor.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE V – UNRELATED BUSINESS TAXABLE INCOME: For tax-exempt organizations only: 70.128% of all Schedule K-1 items of income/(loss) and deductions are treated as Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI, see Frequently Asked Questions page) except Lines 5, 8, 9A, 11F (Section 475(f) gain (loss)) and 13K. 76.446% of Line 11F, Section 475(f) gain (loss), is treated as UBTI. 0% of Lines 5, 8, 9A and 13 are treated as UBTI.

PART III, BOX 20 OTHER INFORMATION, CODE Y – NET INVESTMENT INCOME: The partnership is engaged in the trade or business of trading in financial instruments. As such the income/loss from this activity is subject to the net investment income tax under IRC Section 1411. Therefore, these amounts generally need to be reported by individuals, estates and trusts on Form 8960, in addition to the forms indicated on page 2 of Schedule K-1. Please consult your tax advisor.

No amounts reported on Schedule K-1 represent income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business. The partnership did not generate any items of income or loss that were derived from or connected with sources from within any state. However, as with any items of income or loss, these may be taxable in your state of domicile. Please consult your tax advisor.

100% of interest and dividend income reported on Schedule K-1 represent portfolio interest as defined under IRC Section 871(h)(2), and thus is exempt from U.S. withholding tax for foreign investors, unless otherwise indicated.

Please consult your tax advisor.

To Ellington Financial LLC Shareholders:

Enclosed is your Schedule K-1, which reflects the activity from your investment in Ellington Financial LLC (NYSE:EFC). As a shareholder, you are required to report this activity on your federal and state income tax returns. To assist you in reporting this activity, we have prepared this 2014 Tax Package, which contains certain information relating to your ownership of EFC shares.

In the Tax Package, EFC is providing the following documents to you:

- (1) 2014 Tax Reporting Package - Frequently Asked Questions
- (2) 2014 Schedule K-1 (Form 1065)
- (3) 2014 Supplemental Information (contains details about the amounts reported on Schedule K-1)
- (4) 2014 Ownership Schedule
- (5) 2014 Sales Schedule (if applicable)

Please carefully review the information on your 2014 Ownership Schedule. This schedule contains the history of shares you bought or sold by date and number of shares as reported to EFC by your broker or our transfer agent through December 31, 2014. We rely on purchase and sale information obtained from the brokers and transfer agent to prepare the tax information reported to you. If the information provided by the brokers and transfer agent is incorrect, then the information reported to you, as well as the information reported to the Internal Revenue Service, will also be incorrect. If the information is inaccurate, please contact us as indicated on the 2014 Ownership Schedule to correct such information, and we will issue you a corrected tax package.

This package is intended to be a general guide to reporting your share of our taxable income and any gain or loss from the sale of our shares based on our understanding of existing tax laws and regulations. It is not intended to provide tax advice. Therefore, before you prepare and file your income tax return, you are urged to consult your tax advisor.

If you have any questions concerning your Schedule K-1 or this tax package, please contact Partner DataLink at (855)-237-3734 during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central Time, or visit our website at www.PartnerDataLink.com/Ellington.

2014 Income Tax Reporting Package

Frequently Asked Questions

INTRODUCTION

Ellington Financial LLC (EFC) is a publicly traded limited liability company which is not subject to federal or state income tax. Instead, shareholders are required to report their allocable share of EFC's items of taxable income, gain, deduction or loss on their individual income tax returns as though each shareholder, who is treated as a partner for tax purposes, had incurred such items directly.

The enclosed tax package consists of your IRS Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Supplemental Information Schedule, Ownership Schedule and Sales Schedule for EFC's tax year ending December 31, 2014. Please read the Partner's IRS Instruction Booklet and Ownership Schedule carefully before filing your 2014 Federal Income Tax Return. (Please read the Sales Schedule if you disposed of shares in 2014).

Individuals should proceed directly to the Ownership Schedule and confirm the accuracy of their ownership information. Please report any errors to EFC Partner DataLink at the address, phone number or website listed in the Ownership Schedule Summary.

Next, individuals should review their Federal Schedule K-1 and Supplemental Information Schedule. If any lines of the 2014 Schedule K-1 or the Supplemental Information Schedule show an amount, then you should report the amount on the applicable line's corresponding Form or Schedule that you will attach to your Form 1040.

Finally, if you disposed of your shares prior to January 1, 2015, you should utilize the Sales Schedule and applicable summary to determine your taxable gain or loss on share dispositions. Please contact your tax advisor if you have any questions regarding the applicable tax treatment of any item on the enclosed schedules. Questions relating specifically to the Schedule K-1 Information should be directed to: EFC Partner DataLink at (855) 237-3734

IMPORTANT: The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year.

This Individualized Income Tax Reporting Package is being provided to Registered Owners, (i.e., shareholders who have received a numbered certificate of ownership representing their shares) and to Beneficial Owners (i.e., shareholders whose shares are held in a brokerage or other nominee account) whose ownership information was provided to EFC by their brokers or nominees.

Q. Do I report any cash I received as my taxable income?

A. No. You should report the income items shown on your Schedule K-1 provided to you by EFC.

Q. Is the amount of cash I received equal to the amount I have to report on my individual income tax return?

A. No. The cash payments you received are treated as partnership distributions (nontaxable reductions to your tax basis) for tax purposes. The amount you are required to include in your individual income tax return is your share of EFC's income and related items, allocated based on the number of shares you owned during 2014, and is reported on your Schedule K-1. The amount of your taxable income will not correspond to the amount of cash distributed to you during the year, if any.

Q. What is a Schedule K-1?

A. EFC is a publicly traded limited liability company taxed as a partnership. A partner's share of partnership income and expenses are reported on Schedule K-1 and flow through to EFC's shareholders to be reported on their individual tax returns. EFC is required to file a Form 1065 with the IRS which includes a Schedule K-1 for each shareholder reporting their respective tax information.

Q. Why am I receiving a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099-DIV?

Q. How is my basis affected by cash distributions and partnership net income?

Q. Why do you report an Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) percentage?

A. UBTI is a tax-exempt organization's (including IRA's, Keogh and other qualified retirement plans) distributive share of our gross income and allowable deductions which is considered to be unrelated to the regular activities of the tax-exempt organization, and is generally taxable to those organizations. Tax-exempt organizations subject to this tax should multiply the appropriate K-1 income and expense items by the appropriate UBTI percentage in order to compute their share of 2014 UBTI income earned by EFC. Such income is includable in the organization's taxable income, but may be offset by a $1,000 deduction.

Q. What is income from Section 475(f)?

A. EFC has made an election to have the "mark-to-market" rules apply to its securities trading under Section 475(f). Income from such securities trading is treated as ordinary income instead of capital gain, all gains and losses pursuant to this election have been included on Schedule K-1, Box 11, Code F. Not all of EFC's securities qualify for the election. Income from those securities may generate capital gains and losses. Such capital gains are included on Schedule K-1, boxes 8 and 9.

Q. What should I do if the information in my tax package is incorrect?

A. You may make any corrections directly onto the Ownership Schedule and return it to EFC by May 15, 2015 at the address given in the instructions. You may also call (855) 237-3734 or fax corrections to (215) 982-6302. EFC will use the information on the corrected Ownership Schedule to update its records and will send you corrected tax information.

Q. What is EFC's tax year and how does that affect my share of partnership income?
